

The Dosimetry Services Division of Mirion Technologies (formerly known as Global Dosimetry Solutions) is currently seeking to fill a Technical Specialist position at its Irvine, CA facility.

Responsibilities include:

- Researching and documenting domestic and international dosimetry regulatory requirements, industry standards, and accreditation and license requirements
- Researching, developing, and implementing new products and services
- Establishing processing and quality assurance procedures, manuals, and technical basis documents
- Interfacing and providing technical support to all dosimetry functional areas, management, customers, and vendors
- Performing quality assurance functions
- Maintaining and analyzing customer Environmental Dosimetry programs
- Conducting radiation safety training programs

Education and equivalent experience:

- B.S. in sciences or related field or 5 years of relevant work experience
- Minimum 3 years experience in Dosimetry, Health Physics, or Quality Assurance
- Knowledge of Dosimetry accreditation requirements (domestic and international) preferred

Salary will be determined commiserate with education and experience

Please send all inquiries to Kip Bennett, VP Technical Operations at kbennett@mirion.com